

Alard College of Engineering and Management, Pune
Academic Year 2021-22

Students Satisfactory Survey 2021-2022

Report the summary points are extracted from the Students Satisfactory Survey (SSS) conducted for 2021-22 batch students. The survey consisted of 21 questions as per NAAC guidelines. There were 200 respondents. Summary is reported below:-

SUMMARY:

1. The students are completely satisfied with the preparation of the teachers for the lesson.
2. The students accepted the internal evaluation procedure as absolutely fair under all circumstances.
3. Students accepted the internal evaluation process as totally fair in all circumstances.
4. Teachers illustrating the concepts through examples and applications are appreciated well by students.
5. The participation of ICT tools in teaching is valued by students, which increases interest and interaction.
6. Students agreed that their performance will be communicated to them by teachers through Parent meets and Mentor meetings.
7. The quality of the teaching-learning process is very good overall and is very well supported by the students.
8. Students expect more support from the institution in order to promote a greater number of internships and student exchange programs.
9. Encouraging students to engage in extracurricular activities has also added an extra dimension to holistic learning.
10. Students strongly agreed that the institution makes various effort to engage students in different quality improvement process.

