

Alard College of Engineering and Management, Pune

Academic Year 2020-21

Students Satisfactory Survey 2020-2021

Report the summary points are extracted from the Students Satisfactory Survey (SSS) conducted for 2020-21 batch students. The survey consisted of 21 questions as per NAAC guidelines. There were 421 respondents. Summary is reported below:-

SUMMARY:

1. The students are completely satisfied with the preparation of the teachers for the lesson.
2. The students accepted the internal evaluation procedure as absolutely fair under all circumstances.
3. Students accepted the internal evaluation process as totally fair in all circumstances.
4. Teachers illustrating the concepts through examples and applications are appreciated well by students.
5. Encouraging students to engage in extracurricular activities has also added an extra dimension to holistic learning.
6. .Students agreed that their performance will be communicated to them by teachers through Parent meets and Mentor meetings.
7. The quality of the teaching-learning process is very good overall and is very well supported by the students.
8. Students expect more support from the institution in order to promote a greater number of internships and student exchange programs.
9. The participation of ICT tools in teaching is valued by students, which increases interest and interaction.

